

Association of Washington Business Don Brunell Scholarship For Future Business Leaders

Purpose:

The Don Brunell Scholarship for Future Business Leaders was established to inspire and aid Washington's future business leaders. It is targeted to undergraduate, graduate or career/vocational students currently pursuing or who intend to pursue a course of education that will lead to a degree or certification in business from any public or private university, community or technical college, or private career school.

Frequency of Award:

Annually (provided adequate funds exist and the current president of AWB determines that a qualified recipient(s) have applied)

Amount:

$1,500 ($2,000 if recipient has attended Washington Business Week)

Applying for the Award

Applicant Eligibility Requirements:

You are eligible to apply for the Don Brunell Scholarship if you are the child or grandchild of an active member or employee of the Association of Washington Business who is currently enrolled in an undergraduate, graduate or certificate program at any post-secondary institution in or outside the state of Washington (or who will be attending within the next twelve months) and has a grade-point average (for the past year) of at least 3.00. An individual may only receive one scholarship per year. However, the selection committee reserves the right to award a scholarship to more than one student per year. Siblings of past scholarship winners are eligible to apply and compete for a scholarship. (Preference will be given to students whose parents or grandparents are employed by AWB.)

Eligible students may apply for the Don Brunell Scholarship for Future Business Leaders by first requesting an application (see below).
